Wasted time
Trying to find
The perfect picture in my mind
Golden skies
Paradise
When I've had it this whole time

You see through me like a window
Give me the key to the unknown
And finally, I'm seeing through your eyes
Chasing the light and the shadows
So out of reach
But you were already
Here with me
In between the lines still close to see
You're here with me
My imagination now you're my reality
Now you're my reality

Lost my dreams
Heart beating
Have a system in our dreams
It controls
Everything
What we feel and what we need

You see through me like a window
Give me the key to the unknown
And finally, I'm seeing through your eyes
Chasing the light and the shadows
So out of reach
But you were already
Here with me
In between the lines still close to see
You're here with me
My imagination now you're my reality
Now you're my reality
