Chasing

Ady Suleiman

I was waiting for your love, yeah
I was for waiting time for some time
Had this feeling I was lost, yeah
And you were my only light

So I sang thousand love songs
And I ran 900 hundred miles
Just to hold you, keep you
Trying keep this fire alive
Though the flames did all the harm

Don't go chasing no one
Go chasing something
Don't go wasting all your loving
On somebody who don't care
You made it better
You made shit better
Don't go wasting all your loving
On somebody who was not there

So I left with all my loving
In a whirlwind of my pain
Kept on pushing, keep on pushing
To the light the cast no shadows
Learnt to love myself again

Building a ladder of love
Bottom up wasn't easy
It's better than building a ladder
You was never gon climb
And I'm certain, certain
Through the clouds of all our sorrows
Yeah the sun will start to shine

Don't go chasing no one
Go chasing something
Don't go wasting all your loving
On somebody who don't care
You made it better
You made shit better
Don't go wasting all your loving
On somebody who was not there

Don't go chasing no one
Go chasing something
Don't go wasting all your loving
On somebody who don't care
You made it better
You made shit better
Don't go wasting all your loving
On somebody who's not there
