

Drink Too Much

Ady Suleiman

Drink too much, feeling fucked, what the fuck?
Pour another glass, I think I'm fucked enough

I don't wanna hear another conscious thought
I just wanna break through the constraints of these four walls
I've had enough, the pressure of this life support
I'm trying to escape [?] two fingers up and fuck you all
Turn the music up, I love this tune wait for the drop Conversation? Sorry, don't know, I'm afraid you're outta luck
But if you wanna fuck later on I'll try conduct myself
But it might be tough, I hope that I can get it up
Judge me on the choice I choose to heal myself
Burden of this life within this system starts to take its toll
Fuck freedom, an illusion I am being sold
Give me some time to be free from control

Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced

We don't talk too much, we used to talk a lot
I know you're fucking someone else, don't think that I forgot
And I know we're moving on but that don't mean I stopped loving you
Ah fuck this shit anyway, you're still a bitch! I'm just drunk and confused
As if I'm talking about the girl who's broke my fucking heart
Pour myself another glass, like yesterday, a fresh new start
O' here we go again, cocky and arrogant
Obnoxious sentiment fueled by liquid confidence
Provide the world with love, don't let them know I feel alone
I go outside for a smoke, a smoke I know will kill myself
My insecurities survive within the sober me
Glass of Jack to drown the fact that I'm inadequate socially
I can't deal with the prejudices in society
So give me some time to be free from control

(Free me from control)
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced
Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced

(Free me from control)
(I don't wanna be in this control)
(Why you looking at me in a certain way?)
(Trying to make you feel uncomfortable)

Pass the alcohol
Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced

Pass the alcohol

Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced

(Pass the alcohol, I'll get induced)
