

I Remember

Ady Suleiman

And I remember when we were fuckin'
Now I'm writin' love songs about how we were
And I ever knew that that was something yeah
Then maybe I'd sing these words to you girl and

I never thought that we
Had something special like ice and tea
Compatible despite their ethnicity
And differences they were meant to be
That tastes so sweet lemon and peach
I'm so sorry I did not believe in us

I keep on thinkin' about what we had and how stupid I've been Fucking drama queen always overthinking
When I should've been listenin' to what's true
I pursued something new
Whether you would find it so difficult to do
I stopped myself from falling in two
Love with someone so beautiful, someone beautiful aah

And I remember when we were fuckin'
And now I'm writin' love songs about how we were once
And if I ever knew that was something yeah
Then maybe I'd sing these words to you girl and-

Looking back I realize, I had something that these other guys
Would never get in their life and I took you for granted
I apologize
I didn't know what I had until it was gone
Cause my mind was still young
But I'm grateful for your love
Cause now I know at least there's one
You can fall in love with, care for and see the world with
And I don't even know why I did it
Why'd I let you go?
Drink smoke and dine with, laugh, joke, and share a life with
And I don't even know why I did it
Why'd I let you go?

And I remember when we were fuckin' oh
And now I'm writin' love songs about how we were once
And if I ever knew that was something oh I
Then maybe I'd sing these words to you girl and-

Since you and I
I've struggled to find anything that I like
We had something special
I'm sorry that I couldn't see that now
I was naive at the time other things on my mind
Seeking reason, what is the meaning
This life is deceiving
Yeah, I know that we weren't perfect
But if it's easy it's fucking not worth it

And well I remember when we were fuckin' oh
And now I'm writin' love songs about how we were once
And well if I ever knew that was something oh

Then maybe I would sing these words to you my love

And well I remember when we were fuckin' oh
And now I'm writin' love songs about how we were once
If I ever knew that that was something oh
Then maybe I'll sing these words maybe I'll sing

So how you doing anyway?
You okay are you keeping safe?
I heard you're getting engaged to somebody that's better than me
Well, how you doing anyway?
Are you okay are you keeping safe?
I heard you're getting engaged to somebody that's better than me
