

Nightmares

Aereogramme

Nightmares en route to Dallas
Born out of one bad habit
One filled with lust and fire
Unconscious, dark desire
One riddled with guilt again
To shame a family name
My head is caving in

And now
Only love can save me now
Only love can save me now

This rotting mouth and faded memory
This self-inflicted awful injury
Leads to a vengeful
Which tears won't break apart
My head is caving in
My head is caving in
My head is caving in at last

And now
Only love can save me now
Only love can save me now
Only love can save me now
Only love can save me now
