

Don't Ask

Aeris Roves

Don't ask me where I've been
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of going over everything
Don't ask me where I stayed
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of letting everybody in

I never really say this 'cause
Every time I'm tuning in, you're turning off, oh
Rolling up and switching off
Has got you in and out your feelings, love
Don't you tell me that you're serious
Unless you show me that you're serious
You just get delirious and make me feel inferior
The neighbours keep on hearing us
The same old story, here we go

Don't ask me where I've been
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of going over everything
Don't ask me where I stayed
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of letting everybody in

And I'm swimming in doubt to figure it out
Yeah, I'm missing you but I won't tell you 'cause it hurts
You got me in and out my feelings, explosive
I been thinking about you, thinking about
How you live in my mind, I'm kicking you out
I'm saying goodbye and living without you
And never seeing this side of me
The late nights and strange times
You were playing on my mind, nowhere in sight
And oh, I had enough
I'ma stay clear, now my mind's made up

Don't ask me where I've been
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of going over everything
Don't ask me where I stayed
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of letting everybody in

Now it's trying to fight
But now I let you walk by

So don't ask me where I've been
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of going over everything
Don't ask me where I stayed
'Cause I won't be able to tell you
I'm getting sick and tired of letting everybody in
