Face

Aerosmith

Behind the wall of my temptation thats where it all began she tied me up with my frustration and snapped my rubber band I remember a sweet patchouli she absolutely adored its all about with who your hanging & she gave me too much rope shes a queen of my deliusion shes my zen from wayback when and because of my confusion is a face without a name she lived on lucky charms & coffee and cracker jacks surprise she had me all reborn and then she killed me with her eyes shes the queen of my deliusion shes my friend from way back when

try and get a little bit there's really nothing wrong with it i f no one see's ya what you gonna say when i dont know anyone blame it on the damn amnesia forgotten love dont got away shes still a name without a face we did a little nip & tuck then she whispered to my brain

...she said lets fuck then i forgot her name

and because of my confusion yeah i've come to that conclusion and she comes to me at all and because of my confusion is a face without a name
