When will the clouds erode away
When will the good people have their say
I hope you're still around to see the day
       F#
               G
Take a while, think about it
       F#
               G
Take a while, think about it
       F#
            G A E
Take a while, think about it
Who can tell what is up or down
Who can be the king or be the clown
Then climb your tree, take a look around
       F#
               G
Take a while, think about it
       F#
               G
Take a while, think about it
              G
       F#
                    Α
Take a while, think about it
Circles of life, infinitane
That which is now, will be again
Who can decide who is insane
       F#
               G
Take a while, think about it
       F#
               G
Take a while, think about it
