

Gravity

Aesthetic Perfection

The stars have not aligned
The dark devours the light
I long to drift away
Escape the gravity

No gravity
I slip away
I've lost my place
In ever after
The cold embrace
The stars await
I'm so afraid
Of ever after

The sparks have come and gone
Our gods abandoned us
Inertia's burning me
Eclipse eternity
