

Tomorrow

Aesthetic Perfection

I cannot sleep
I cannot breath
The air is gone.

All i can see
Is you is you

So time passes and i wait
Nothing comes to take me from this

I dont believe so
I ask so i ask..

When tomorrow comes again
Will I fall
Will I face this world again
Will the day be brighter than it was before

The fall's open me
Thought focus
Lost in memory
To blind to see
The truth in you
A sense of light
I'll just close my eyes
Until the sun shines down on me

When tomorrow comes again
Will I fall
Will I face this world again
Will the day be brighter than it was before

When tomorrow comes again
Will it last
Will we stand on our own again
I cant believe that we still can
Its time to say goodbye and just move on
