"But see, amid the mimic rout
A crawling shape intrude!
A blood-red thing that writhes from out
The scenic solitude!
It writhes! - It writhes! - with mortal pangs
The mimes become it's food,
And seraphs sob at vermin fangs
In human gore imbued.

Out - out are the lights - out all!

And, over each quivering form,

The curtain, a funeral pall,

Comes down with the rush of a storm,

While the angels all pallid and wan,

Uprising, unveiling, affirm

That the play is the tragedy "Man,"

And it's hero the Conqueror Worm." *
