

Lonely Night

Afgan

Wanna dance on the walls, on the ceiling
Wanna scream really loud like I mean it
If it's good, if it's bad, wanna feel it
Wanna take it all in and release it

And everyone's so scared of being alone
They never see
The beauty of just being in your lonely company

Yeah, you know sometimes
You know it takes a lonely night
To know that it's gonna be alright
No, I don't need no one by my side
Just me, myself and I
Myself and
Myself and, myself and I
Myself and
Myself and, myself and I
Myself and, myself and
No, I don't need no one by my side
Just me, myself and I

Dance to the fear till it leaves you
The fear of being yourself
Let it go
Be the real you
'Cause ain't nobody gon' choose your worth
Only you know what you deserve
You and nobody else
You and nobody else

You know sometimes
You know it takes a lonely night
To know that it's gonna be alright
No, I don't need no one by my side
Just me, myself and I
Myself and
Myself and, myself and I
Myself and
Myself and, myself and I
Myself and, myself and
No, I don't need no one by my side
Just me, myself and I
