

Never Let Go

Afgan

Lying here alone on an empty night
Wondering when, will I see you again
Do you ever hear all my lullabies
Brush through the wind, to be with you

Every time I say I have to go
And goodbye, I need to let you know
That our memories
Always come along

Every mile I go, another road I take
I pretend that I'll step on the steps you make
I'll be coming home, in a month or two
Just to hold you tight, and never let go

A million places
All lead me back to you
A million faces
You're the one I keep inside

Every mile I go, another road I take
I pretend that I'll step on the steps you make
I'll be coming home, in a month or two
Just to hold you tight, and never let go

Every mile I go, another road I take
I pretend that I'll step on the steps you make
I'll be coming home, in a month or two
Just to hold you tight, and never let go...
