so wrong but so right

Afgan

You don't know the power you have
Over me that got me so weak
No idea, from a simple touch
Could give me so much feelings inside

Days passing by
Still don't know why
You're in my mind
Swimming around in my head

Caught up in the touch of your lips
Don't wanna stop but our time is running
I wanna go I don't want to know
I'm so ashamed but I can't let go

Should've known but now it's too late
Having you lying in my bed
I wanna know girl I wanna know
How could it feel so right when it's wrong

How could it feel so right when it's wrong

Bad decisions on the go
We turned them into something beautiful
I should've left when I still had the chance
Guess it's time for me to face it

Days passing by
Still don't know why
You're in my mind
Swimming around in my head

Caught up in the touch of your lips
Don't wanna stop but our time is running
I wanna go I don't want to know
I'm so ashamed but I can't let go

Should've known but now it's too late
Having you lying in my bed
I wanna know girl I wanna know
How could it feel so right when it's wrong

How could it feel so right when it's wrong
I wanna know girl, I wanna know
