

Royal Cream

Afghan Whigs

I know you're sleeping with another demon

Love destroyed by love

And I know you couldn't care because we're legion

Love demeaned by love

This all night or get it right

Loaded to the teeth

Once a malady

Since a rhapsody

Love thy neighbor

Love thy neighbor

Bow down or kill the crown

The royal cream is love diseased by love

Come back, you dirty rat

Behold the dreamer

Love believed by love

This all night or get it right

Rolling through the reeds

This apology

Kills a part of me

Love thy stranger

Love thy stranger

If I would become what I dreamed as a child

I'd be fearless, devoted, alive

Jump back or kiss the jack

This lowlife's feeling low

Run now or take a bow

You'll only hear this once

I know you're sleeping with another demon

Love destroyed by love

Come back, you dirty rat

Behold the schemer

Love deceived by love

Redeemed by love

If I have a breath inside of me

I'll drink the blood of royalty

They're runnin'

They're runnin'

They're runnin', oh
