Get Dark

AFI

I am not the father, I am not the son
I'm only a maker of useless things undone, undone
I am not of Mother Earth nor morning sun
I'm only a maker of useless things undone, here's one

Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark
Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark

I gave you faith and devotion, I gave you stranger days
You said you'd love me anyway
You gave back the emotion
On the blank exchange
You said my love is like your faith, your faith, your faith, yo ur faith

Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark
Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark

Tell me who you think I am
Tell me do you think I can
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark
Tell me who you think I am
Tell me do you think I can

Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark
Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get dark
Who do you think you are?
Do you think you can?
Get dark, get dark, get dark, get
