

No Eyes

AFI

We've outdone ourselves covering our eyes in coals
You'll look like someone else sleeping my bed's end
Unfold in small hours unsold

Every coolly measured line
Every blush beyond the lines
Reminding me that you aren't mine
Every blush beyond the lines
Every coolly spoken line
Reminding me that you aren't mine

You gave your best fighting face
Covering your eyes with strength
With vibrance, long misplaced
Found in a black box I gave
Unsealed and signed with your name

Every coolly measured line
Every blush beyond the lines
Reminding me that you aren't mine
Every blush beyond the lines
Every coolly spoken line
Reminding me that you aren't mine

In just a little time oh, we so quickly knew
Beneath the lies spoke awful truth
Beneath the little lies there was a vibrant truth
You were invited and I have no excuse
For giving fire to

Every coolly measured line
Every blush beyond the lines
Reminding me that you aren't mine
Every blush beyond the lines
Every coolly spoken line
Reminding me that you aren't mine
