

Another Level

Afrojack

We're on another level, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level

We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level

Level, level, level, level, level, level, level
Level, level, level, level, level, level, level
Le, le, le, le...
We're on another level

We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level

We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level
We're on another level, we're on another level
You can't see us why, we're on another level

Level, level, level, level, level, level, level
Level, level, level, level, level, level, level
Le, le, le, le...
We're on another level
