

Save My Soul

Afrojack

We're here
No no no faking
Like a new sensation
I feel you shaking

We're here
Cry happy tears
These golden years
Yeah you're sure persuading

Eyes on the prize
You could be mine
A perfect motivation
Chills down the spine
Fireworks tonight
Tonight

Would you mind saving my soul
While you're shining like gold
Would you mind saving my soul
While you're shining like gold

We're here no no no faking
Like a new sensation
I feel you shaking

We're here
Cry happy tears
These golden years
Yeah you're sure persuading

Eyes on the prize
You could be mine
A perfect motivation
Chills down the spine
Fireworks tonight
You're my hallucination

You look like a fire burning as the sun goes down
You look like desire turning this heart around

Would you mind saving my soul
While you're shining like gold
Would you mind saving my soul
While you're shining like gold
Like gold!

Would you mind saving my soul
While you're shining like gold
Would you mind saving my soul
While you're shining like gold
Like gold!

Would you mind saving my soul
Would you mind saving my soul
