

Start Over Again

Afrojack

What have we become?
Broken up, you and I undone
Nowhere left to run
Looking into myself head-on

The sky is falling, but who's gonna (Say, we)
Have each other, ain't no other (Way, we)
Keep on fighting, stand united (Maybe)
We can start over again

Start over again
We'll turn it around
Start over again
We can start over again

Start over
Again
Start all over
This is a normal plan

We belong in here
So don't let love disappear
Oh come and take my hand
And I'll help you to understand

That the sky is falling, but who's gonna (Say, we)
Have each other, ain't no other (Way, we)
Keep on fighting, stand united (Maybe)
We can start over again

Start over again
We'll turn it around
Start over again
We can start over again

Start over
Again
Start all over
This is a normal plan

Start over
Again
Start all over
This is a normal plan
To start over again

Take my hand
Start over again
We can start over (Over)
Start over again
We can start over again
