

Return of the Cavemen

Afromental

Bring that shit on!

Far far away from here on a very distant land
There's one forgotten exile living lonely in his cave
Banished from our world just for being a real man
High time to give him a sign for the old rules to recur

Hey, hey, hey
Our feast can last the whole day
Will eat and drink it all and won't pay
No place, no time to explain

Hey, hey, hey
Your woman knows the way to our cave
Hunger makes us feel no shame
Is that anything too much to take?

It's the return of the cavemen, return of the cavemen
A stone age you babe
Raw laws, masculine delivery

It's the return of the cavemen, return of the cavemen
A stone age you babe
Raw laws, no choice so, dig it

Work through your sorrow
Cause all have changed
Rules and laws you've been fighting for they're back to the stone age state

Bring me my mace, where's my spear, leather and fur?
Wash me good and feed me well so my hunt will bring success.

Hey, hey, hey
We're the men and you need to know
We bring you food, do you good, but we need to rest alone

Hey, hey, hey
More wine, more meat, more boar!
My hunger leaves bare naked bones, rise all hail the Thor!

It's the return of the cavemen, return of the cavemen
A stone age you babe
Raw laws, masculine delivery

It's the return of the cavemen, return of the cavemen
A stone age you babe
Raw laws, no choice, so dig it

Everlasting force
Lead us back on course
Bring your grace on me
New messiah's reign

It's the return of the cavemen, return of the cavemen
A stone age you babe
Raw laws, masculine delivery

It's the return of the cavemen, return of the cavemen
A stone age you babe
Raw laws, no choice, so dig it
