

Scream For You

After Midnight Project

The anger won't leave me
My blood still runs cold
Forget all the glamor
Forget all the gold

Are you listening? Do you even care?

Am I just a face or someone you trust?
A fire on the mountain, a stranger on the bus
A book without an ending, a rumor we all know is true...

I'm just a book without an ending

When I cry it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you

I'm surrounded by the poisons
That feed off of greed
I keep on laughing
You're not taking this from me
I'm book without ending, a rumor we all know is true

Just a book without an ending
When I cry it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you
When I bleed it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you

I can't seem to learn
The signs of being
Who I am
So I scream for you

I don't know why
I keep missing signs
I'm losing it
I scream for you

When I cry it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you
When I bleed it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you
And I scream for you
And I scream for you
