

Requiem

Agar Agar

Hi girl, have you received it all?
You know you don't have to say
I will walk away now

Now, did you forget about me?
You don't have to say
I know what you did

Stop, please
Try at least to care
What's up with that guy?
Don't you want to date them all?
Right, sure, you're the one to blame
Face it, bitch, you lied to me
I will kill your daddy
