

You'll See

Age of Artemis

When shadows drain your strength
Feels like drawing in quicksand
If your soul has turned to grey
And you don't want to be saved

Does it bother you to fake a smile?

You'll know
You'll realize
The mirror never lies
No!

You're living in the edge
And I know it's up to you
You're feeling like you're blind
But it's only in your mind

Does it bother you to fake a smile?

You'll know
You'll realize
The mirror never lies
I know your hands are tired
It's so hard to say goodbye

You'll see!

You're living in the edge
And I know it's up to you

Does it bother you to fake a smile?

You'll know
You'll realize
The mirror never lies
I know your hands are tired
It's so hard to say goodbye

You'll see!
