

EGO

Agnes

Throw me to the lions, send me to the light
Oh you got me up all night
Wading in a full moon sky
It's all in my mind

Got a hold on my soul, I try to take the weight
Even if my heart might break
Even if stays the same

Some things are hard to find
We seek between the lines
Waiting for miracles

I I let my ego
Know she has to take the back seat, the back seat
Or this whole situation will be the death of me
I I let my ego
Know she has to take the back seat, the back seat
Or this whole situation will be the death of me

Taking every corner, turning every stone
Strip down to my very bones
Cut it loose and watch it go

Somethings are hard to find
And we seek between the lines
Waiting for miracles

I I let my ego
Know she has to take the back seat, the back seat
Or this whole situation will be the death of me
I I let my ego
Know she has to take the back seat, the back seat
Or this whole situation will be the death of me

I let bitch know
She's out of control
I let the bitch know
She's out of control
