

Attention

Agnostic Front

On the net you're a star
But that's not who you are
You're starving for attention
It won't get you far
It's so pathetic
The life you portray
It's all about likes
And you everyday

Attention!
On you!
Attention!

You've set no boundaries
To reach your goals
Looking for attention
To up your growth
There's no limit
No control
It's all about likes and your ego

Attention!
On you!
Attention!

Attention!
On you!
Attention!
It's all about you

You're starving for attention
Hang your laundry on the line
You look so damn pathetic
Attention you won't find

Attention!
On you!
Attention
Attention

Attention!
On you!
Attention!
Fuck you
