

Devastated

Agnostic Front

I was devastated, pissed and depressed
The more I thought about it
The angrier I get
Destroying everything in a drunken rage
Smashing everyone in my fucking way

My anger inside!
All bottled up my life
What fuels my rage?
Will I get out alive?
I'm gonna have to pray

Raging with blood on my face
Violence was my only way
I reacted with fierce intensity, out of control
God help me!
Nothing was safe, I had no fear
I was a full on fucking lunatic
Walking down these city streets

My anger inside!
All bottled up my life
What fuels my rage?
Will I get out alive?
I'm gonna have to pray

I let it get the best of me
These city streets, they wreaked insanity
My fault
I let it get the best of me!
I was seeing red
Anger and depression
I let it get the best of me!
