

Tears For Everyone

Agnostic Front

Howling wind all through the night
Mass destruction taking flight
There's no cover, you're in its path
Shows no bias, only wrath!

Embers fly without a sound
All that you love burned to the ground
No time to mourn as you have to run

Hope is lost, and anger has begun!
The damage has been done!
Tears for everyone

Disbelief in what we saw
Optimists we are no more
No time to waste, the truth is spun

We must defy, 'cause anger has begun!
The damage has been done!
Tears for everyone

Death on display
It won't go away
Stand up today!

Death on display
It won't go away
Stand up today!
