

Last Sign of Light

Agonizer

When the darkness lands on the frozen ground only one candle lights my way
The wind is howling like a lonely wolf that is fulfilled with pain
The sun has drowned into endless night but the moon is still alive
Now the wind tries to kill my only light that flame from deep inside

Come little closer and take my hand
I shall lead you to the promised land
I can give you anything
Much more that your life can bring

I embrace the wind with bleeding arms and the flame slowly starts to die
My last sign on light...

I'm afraid that there's nothing to do
The blackness has filled your heart too
But there's no need for bleeding tears
I can take away all your fears

The endless sleep is drawing near
But I'm not feeling any fear
There's still hope left after I die
Revenge is sweeter from the other side

The endless sleep is finally here
But I'm not feeling any fear
There is still hope left after I die
Revenge is sweeter from the other side
