Even my family couldn't foresee my success
What's the point of talking about it when I wasn't sure myself
Even my family approved me as a tough cookie
I'm the public enemy, the hyungs
Who benefited by slandering us
Every one of them had the taste of money
They say two things with one mouth and head to the big companies
What you know about me?

You can't control my shit
If you're going to leave,
Take back whatever you've said before
If you ask me how I've succeeded,
I don't really have an answer
But at least, I slept less and stayed active
Compared to you all to grow up
I'm still not sure about the secret to success
But I think I know the secret to failure
The secret is to play the fool just like you
And keep blabbing your mouth
But I wouldn't live like that even if I had to die

Gi give it to me
Money, honor, whatever it may be bring it to me
Fame flash light
Gi give it to me (gi give it to me)
I don't mind whatever it may be so bring it to me

I can't live like a dog when I'm born to be a tiger
Pour me whatever you have,
Liquor, money or honor
I never beg for it,
Whatever you're holding in your hands,
I have no desire
I only do what I have to do,
Law of jungle?
The political world within the word "success"

You guys keep going after each other's throats
Yeah, right ass* yeah,
Yeah keep fighting
I don't care if you keep
Digging your own grave or wasting yourself
So please continue living like that

Don't touch me, don't even put your hand on me
You might end up in a coffin
If you keep fooling around sloppily
One for the money and two for the show
Fame flash light gi give it to me

Gi give it to me
Money, honor, whatever it may be bring it to me
Fame flash light
Gi give it to me (gi give it to me)
I don't mind whatever it may be so bring it to me
