What do you think of it, what do you think of it
What do you think of it, what do you think of it
What do you think of it, what do you think of it
However you think of it, I'm sorry, but shit, I have no fucking interest

Sorry, I have no fucking interest in your middling life
Or the fact that you can't escape the manure bucket after being ruined
Crazy that you'd think that my success has a connection to your failure
Your delusions are first-rate, fuck you
Your senses of humour are so so; the fact that you're fucked is your fault, no no?
The  who're listening to this song are so freaking pissed they faint

Without reversing, I'm zooming straight forward once again, I'm global, so fly huh
I have no need to do it, flexing, but I'm on a chartered plane, so fly
Consume it all, each and every thing of ours that we've been doing all this time
For I'm not concerned by stray grains of rice that've stuck
Just like they've fallen off of their own accord, the whole lot of them, go fuck yourself huh

What do you think of it, what do you think of it
1st on Billboard, what do you think of it
Next is a Grammy, what do you think of it
However you think of it, I'm sorry, but shit, I have no fucking interest

The ten zeros in my bank account, that money is the collateral for my youth
I got a big house big car big ring, bring anything over, I'll give it to you, my black card
The bastards that received media benefits were on air more often than me
And the brats that boast about their money, you have to wonder how much they could've actually earnt
Woo woo, yeah, money boasts are only cute to me now
Woo woo, dividing it only feels bad at your level
Woo woo, we'll be sure to go to the military when it's time, so
All the bastards who tried to sell our name to freeloader off us, shut up

I don't know I don't know I don't know I don't know
At this point, there's no need to know
I have no fucking interest in those who ask whether idol music is music
It'll be your last present, but this too is a luxury for you all
High, high, even higher: to the point you won't even be able to see, uh

What do you think of it, what do you think of it
1st on Billboard, what do you think of it
Next is a Grammy, what do you think of it
However you think of it, I'm sorry, but shit, I have no fucking interest
