

Chains

Aha Gazelle

It's gonna take more, so much more than a miracle
To rid these chains that hang all over me
I'm gonna need something that's way, way past a miracle
To rid these chains that hang on me

It's two in the A.M., I'm back at it again
Thank you for tuning in and listening to me vent
I'm a broken vessel tryna mend
My youngin' in the air, the streets done put him there
This is life is all unfair, I done let out every tear
Cold nights with nobody there
No matter what I do, I'm stuck in this typhoon
Somebody move this glue, the sky above all blue
Yet all I see is a cloud or two
'Cause I'ma get this chain off me, I'ma get this chain off me
I gotta get this chain off me, I gotta get this chain off me

It's gonna take more, so much more than a miracle
To rid these chains that hang all over me
I'm gonna need something that's way, way past a miracle
To rid these chains that hang on me

Cool
It's four in the A.M., I'm back at it again
I'm tired of the gym, but I drag my feet on it
Like, will this treadmill ever end?
I think I make amends, I be open 'bout my sins
I'd rather not pretend, 'cause a dead end is a place that we've all been, oh-oh-oh-oh
Round and round we spin, if I got my limp back in
Would I be so wrong?
These chains are very heavy, but they helped me shine (Shine)
These chains are very heavy (Shine)
Can somebody help me? (Shine)
Carry these chains that hang all over me

It's gonna take more, so much more than a miracle
To rid these chains that hang all over me
I'm gonna need something that's way, way past a miracle
To rid these chains that hang on me

Ooh, yeah, yeah, yeah, a miracle
To rid these chains that hang on me
Ooh yeah, these chains on me, these chains, gonna take, take
Ooh-oooh-oooh, mm-mm
No-no-no-no-no-no
