

Desert Eagle

Aha Gazelle

We recording?

Yeah

Yeah!

Aha!

It's Aha!

Uh

Even though I'm 6 foot 6, feel like I'm 3 feet tall
Feel like I got superpowers, I know how to walk through walls
I just be floating down the hall
I ain't got nothing in my chest
Nobody helps me when I fall
I just be talking to myself
Feel like I lost a major bet
My whole life is a blank check
My alphabet don't have an 'S'
I guess I'm stuck with Clark Kent
If everybody had a bed, I'm on the floor inside the tent
If there's a party in the yard, I'm not allowed past the fence
I've just been walking down the hall
I've just been looking for a friend
If I could just get me one, I swear I won't complain again
I would go kick it at the mall, but I don't have any friends
If I could just get me one
My bad

People always talking like they gotta use the potty
Man, I know I'm not the strongest, don't remind me
I told em my dream then they got upset and threw me in the pit and hollered out, "You ain't got no job, Tommy!"
Am I allowed to be great?
Let me know
Or do I have to be afraid?
(Bang, Bang, Bang, Bang)
Or do I have to be afraid?
Let me know
One shot, two shots, three shots, four shots, five shots, six shots
Everybody going down
(Bang, Bang, Bang, Bang)
Everybody going down
(Bang, Bang, Bang, Bang)
Please don't leave me with the desert eagle
Please don't leave me with the desert eagle
Everybody going down
(Down [x6])
Everybody going down
(Down [x8])

Uh

Yeah

Aha

It's Aha!

Uh

It seems like all the people who do it big get shot down
Some of them by they own people

I don't know who I should hang around
It could be you
God doesn't give a spirit to feel
But I'm scared y'all cannot tell the truth
Cause these days we don't talk, we just shoot
Du Du
Cause Jackie Chan ain't bulletproof
I'd rather be Chuck Norris
If not, you better be gone before Jenny can even holler Forest
I know we ask for this a whole lot, but can you pray for us
We really need it
See, it gets worse when you find out we all dying from our own people
We supposed to be on the same team
I thought you were more supportive
Nowadays if they had a chance they'd probably shoot up Michael Jordan
Don't be a dreamer, that's a no-no, we kill those and dump em in the water
Then we holler Worldstar while we recording
