

Must Be Why

Aha Gazelle

Chill Bro
It's Aha

I'm just rappin' I ain't cappin' I ain't never sold no drugs
I ain't lyin' for no people just for them to show me love
I ain't lyin' with no honeys they just want what's in my blood
I ain't lyin' for no money like your favorite rapper does
I ain't leaving, I ain't leaving, I ain't leaving till' it's done
Every season got a reason, nothing happens just because They misleading, don't believe em' only thing they do is judge
But where's the love

Through the sun and the rain
I don't want things to change
But the chance isn't likely
Is it the way that I sing
Or the money that it brings
That make people wanna like me
Do you care about her pain
And the blood in her veins
Or is she just a body
Do you really do it for the love
Or is it just a hobby
I mean it must be why
I mean it must be
I mean it must be
I mean it must be why
I mean it must be why
I mean it must be why
Must be, I mean it must be
I mean it must be why
I mean it must be why
Hey, hey

Why ya here
Lookin' at my face you see a, that's a tear
These are real, my dear
If I kill, you gon' die on top that hill
You not for real
I hear ya but don't feel ya (Wooooohooooo)
Top of the morning
Ramblin' talkin' to God when I'm lonely
Like is it really love
Or is it just a vibe
I hope I can recognize
You may not get a second time
Everybody won't survive (Everybody won't survive)

Through the sun and the rain
I don't want things to change
Is it the way that I sing
Or the money that it brings
That make people wanna like me

Do you really do it for the love
I mean it must be
I mean it must be why
I mean it must be why
Hey, hey
