

Danger

AHI

Timothy was
Left on Adelaide to lay there cold in his own blood
Shadows fall down
Endless alleyway a fiendish pain where bullets struck
Ricochet laws
Innocence don't shield your skin, protect your fragile bones
Single teardrop
Gazing into dusk as he looked up and he cried

I feel danger
Hear me calling
Be my saviour, Lord
Hear me calling
I'm afraid here
Night is falling
Don't let me die alone
I feel danger

Lift my breath, my heart, my soul
Lift my breath, my heart, my soul

Evelyn stood
By the window pane, it's more than strange he won't pick up
Her archangel
The only male who stuck 'round long enough for her to love
Stomach turning
Pacing through the dark, the dinner on the table cold
Fighting teardrops
Mama's intuition fighting back as she cried

I feel danger
Hear me calling
Be my saviour, Lord
Hear me calling
I'm afraid here
Night is falling
Don't let me die alone
I feel danger

Lift my breath, my heart, my soul
Lift my breath, my heart, my soul

Oh, I feel lost, Lord
Don't let it end
Hear me when I cry out

I feel danger
Hear me calling
Be my saviour, Lord
Hear me calling
I'm afraid here
Night is falling
Don't let me die alone
I feel danger

Lift my breath, my heart, my soul
Lift my breath, my heart, my soul

I feel danger
Hear me calling
Be my saviour, Lord
Hear me calling
I'm afraid here
Night is falling
Don't let me die alone
I feel danger
