

Embrace

AHI

Oh na-na-na embrace
Oh na-na-na embrace

I was stuck in the middle with nowhere to go
Left empty handed, carrying a heavy load
I was out in the open, tryna salvage my soul
Surrounded by demons, but then you took hold

And you became an angel, you went to war for me
You became the stillness, and you enfolded me
That's when I found a heartbeat
That's when I learned to breathe
That's when I found the person I was truly meant to be

In your embrace
Oh na-na-na, embrace
In your embrace
Oh na-na-na, embrace
In your embrace I finally feel like I am truly me
I've found myself in your embrace

You put your arms around me
And the words you spoke
It filled the absence, it was my only hope
Oh, and with a confidence I'd never felt before
You gave me courage to conquer all

'Cause you became an angel, you went to war for me
You became the stillness, and you enfolded me
That's when I found a heartbeat
That's when I learned to breathe
That's when I found the person I was truly meant to be

In your embrace
Oh na-na-na, embrace
In your embrace
Oh na-na-na, embrace
In your embrace I finally feel like I am truly me
I've found myself in your embrace

I need you more than I'll ever know
Been alone in the cold and I won't let go
Won't you help me find my way home
I need your touch like a miracle
'Cause you make me strong
And you make me whole

'Cause you became an angel
You went to war for me
You became the stillness
And you enfolded me
That's when I found a heartbeat
That's when I learned to breathe
That's when I found the person I was truly meant to be

In your embrace
Oh na-na-na, embrace

In your embrace
Oh na-na-na, embrace
In your embrace I finally feel like I have been set free
You're bringing out the person I know I was meant to be
I've found myself in your embrace

In your embrace I finally feel like I have been set free
You're bringing out the person I know I was meant to be, yeah
I've found myself in your embrace
