Give It All

AHI

I can be the beggar, or I can be the king
But I will be the only one to be loyal 'til the end
Yeah, I can be the rebel, or I can be the saint
But you'll always have both my shoulders if you need the strength

We keep going back and forth
Either way, I'm always yours
We've been through the highs and the lows, and you know

I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
If you want every drop in my heart I'll bleed
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I'll follow you anywhere if you take my lead
Give it all, give it a-a-all

You can treat me like a boy, or you can treat like a man
Girl, you know I'm gonna treat you right until you finally understand
That I ain't leaving in the morning, no I ain't leaving in the night
I'll be here in your darkest hours to help you carry the light

In the shadows of your doubts
I ain't ever walking out
We've been to the edge of the world, and you know

I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
If you want every drop in my heart I'll bleed
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I'll follow you anywhere if you take my lead
Give it all, give it a-a-all

Changing colours just for you
I'm a chameleon, but don't make me blue
I'm going out of my skin, just for you
I'll play chameleon, but don't make me blue
No don't make me blue, 'cause

I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
If you want every drop in my heart I'll bleed
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I'll follow you anywhere if you take my lead
Give it all, give it a-a-all

I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
If you want every drop in my heart I'll bleed
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me
I give it all, give it all, give it all to you
Give it all, give it all, give it all to me

I'll follow you anywhere if you take my lead
Give it all, give it a-a-all
