

Picking Me Up

AHI

Lately I've been feeling beat
So restless I cannot sleep
Wake me if I'm daydreaming so long that I don't even go outside
Where's the motivation
When it seems like nothing's changing
So I'm spending all my days in bed, watching as the time passes me by

But then you take my hand
And give me electricity
So I can smile again
You always bring me to my feet

Oh now, I'm putting on my shoes
I'm gonna walk this earth with you
Oh now, I'm running out that door
We'll chase the sun 'till we can't no more
Whoa now, you keep filling my cup
You're the only one who's picking me up
Oh now, when the ground got tough
Child, you keep picking me up
Picking me up, you're the only one who's picking me up

From my window it's all motionless
A world where no one notices
Unless you're in the social light, making rounds amongst the trending crowd
Won't you be my patience
As I search for inspiration
'Cause there's nothing really happening, we're all just fitting in or standing out

But then you take my hand
And give me electricity
So I can smile again
You always bring me to my feet

Oh now, I'm putting on my shoes
I'm gonna walk this earth with you
Oh now, I'm running out that door
We'll chase the sun 'till we can't no more
Whoa now, you keep filling my cup
You're the only one who's picking me up
Oh now, when the ground got tough
Child, you keep picking me up
Picking me up, you're the only one who's picking me up

I don't know what I'd get done or what I'd do if I didn't have you to call on
You to call on
Oh, I don't know where I would be, somewhere chasing my apathy, girl
If I didn't have you to call on

Oh now, I'm putting on my shoes
I'm gonna walk this earth with you
Oh now, I'm running out that door
We'll chase the sun 'till we can't no more
Whoa now, you keep filling my cup
You're the only one who's picking me up

Oh now, when the ground got tough
Child, you keep picking me up
Picking me up, you're the only one who's picking me up