

Pull Back The Veil

AHI

Pull back the veil
There's something not right here
The stories they won't sell
The balance is unfair

If time equals money
And money is power
Have we wasted all the hours
Building someone else's tower?

Go on get your own
And always stay true to yourself
Got nothing to lose but yourself
Your soul is your throne
Don't let no one drag you through hell
It's your life so you might as well
You might as well

Pull back the veil
Awake from this slumber
Are we caught in the spell
Or stuck in such wonder?

If bliss is not knowing
And knowledge is power
Have we laid a bed of flowers
For someone else's ivory tower?

Go on get your own
And always stay true to yourself
Got nothing to lose but yourself
Your soul is your throne
Don't let no one drag you through hell
It's your life so you might as well
You might as well

Oh-ooh-oh-oh-ooh-oh-oh-oh
Believe there is more to life
(Oh, oh, oh, o-oh)
Oh-ooh-oh-oh-ooh-oh-oh-oh
Make it right or make it worthwhile
(Oh, oh, oh, o-oh)
Oh-ooh-oh-oh-ooh-oh-oh-oh
It's your life you know what you need
(Oh, oh, oh, o-oh)
Oh-ooh-oh-oh-ooh-oh-oh-oh
It's your life you might as well

Pull back the veil
Who's giving these orders?
I ain't trynna raise hell
But are we being led to slaughter?

If choice gives you freedom
And freedom is power
Have we slowly gave up ours
To slave in someone else's tower?

Go on get your own
And always stay true to yourself
Got nothing to lose but yourself
Your soul is your throne
Don't let no one drag you through hell
It's your life so pull back the veil
Go on get your own
And always stay true to yourself, na-na
Got nothing to lose but yourself
Your soul is your throne
Don't let no one drag you through hell, no
It's your life so you might as well
You might as well

Pull back the veil
