

The Honest One

AHI

Does anybody say what they mean anymore?
Talk's so cheap everybody can afford
But my silence is golden
Everyone can't be chosen
So let me [?] and I'll say whatcha need
If you're out here lookin' for some transparency
When the answers are loaded
And my heart will [?]

Oh I can truly be the honest one
If forward's where you are, I'll be upfront
See, clearly you and I, we're more than meets the eye
So I won't lie
No, I won't lie
You can count on me to be the honest one

You've never been a fool for the sleight of the hand
Even when I tried, I never could pretend
I lay bare all my secrets
If it proves that I mean it
Aren't we all playin' parts in a great big facade
Searchin' for a soul who sees who we are
Girl, I make that connection
And I'll be your reflection

Oh I can truly be the honest one
If forward's where you are, I'll be upfront
See, clearly you and I, we're more than meets the eye
So I won't lie
No, I won't lie
You can count on me to be the honest one

Oh I can truly be the honest one
If forward's where you are, I'll be upfront
See, clearly you and I, we're more than meets the eye
So I won't lie
No, I won't lie
You can count on me to be the honest one

Oh I can truly be the honest one
If forward's where you are, I'll be upfront
See, clearly you and I, we're more than meets the eye
So I won't lie
No, I won't lie
You can count on me to be the honest one
No, I won't lie
No, I won't lie
Oh, I won't lie
