

Different

Aidan Bissett

I'm in your games, thinking of it
I'm different from every boy you've been with
Where do you want to be in ten years?
Where we're going, baby, there's no place to stop

We can have fun even when we don't want it
I'll be here even though you don't want me
I can change your world even though it don't seem so clear
We can have fun even when we don't want it
I'll be here even though you don't want me
I can change your world even though it don't seem so clear

I'm in your place, waiting around
I'm your mistake, I feel it deep down
Where do you want to be in ten years?
Take me my hand, baby
And I can show you the way

We can have fun even when we don't want it
I'll be here even though you don't want me
I can change your world even though it don't seem so clear
We can have fun even when we don't want it
I'll be here even though you don't want me
I can change your world even though it don't seem so clear

New shoes, I'm sorry
I know I'm charming
I've been waiting for so long
New shoes, I'm sorry
I know I'm charming
I've been waiting for so long
I've been waiting for so long

We can have fun even when we don't want it
I'll be here even though you don't want me
I can change your world even though it don't seem so clear
We can have fun even when we don't want it
I'll be here even though you don't want me
I can change your world even though it don't seem so clear
