

weak end

Aidan Bissett

You got that look in your eyes
For such a pretty face
You pull me in like a human hurricane
You know how lucky you are
To keep me on a string
And I come running like a shotgun wedding ring

Red lips and roses glasses
Twistin' and turning cheeks
Falling is so romantic
But baby, I know

You only call me on the weak end
Just somebody when you need a friend
I'm only picking up the pieces
When you're spinning on the ceiling
You turn me upside down
Oh baby, baby, please

I wanna look in your eyes
I wanna make amends
I wanna wrap you in a pearl white picket fence
It's never get what you give
I'm pulling out my hair
You got me crying on a one night overshare

Red lips and rosy glasses
But I know

You only call me on the weak end
Just somebody when you need a friend
I'm only picking up the pieces
When you're spinning on the ceiling
You turn me upside down
Inside out
Cut me up just to spit me out
You only call me on the weak end
Just somebody when you need a friend

You only call me on the weak end, weak end
You only call me on the weak end, weak end

Get what you want
Get what you need
You're going out
While I'm falling asleep
Kissing me softly
A kick in the teeth
Head out the doorway and it's killing me

Get what you want
Get what you need
You're going out

You only call me on the weak end, weak end

It's killing me
