If Something's Wrong

Aidan Hawken

Are those tear drops that you're crying
Tell me if there's something wrong
Well I know that we've been through it
But just look at far that we've come
Can I tell you what I see in you
You're rising like the shining sun
It's okay babe I'll forgive you
Just tell me what it is that you've done

I'll love you for what ever you've done

I feel like I'm changing
I'm telling you there's something wrong
I'm so scared that you won't love me
If I tell you all the things that I've done
My heart feels like it's falling babe
Or sinking like the setting sun
I can't stand that I might lose you

Will you love me for whoever I become Love me for whatever I become
Love me for whatever I've done

I will wipe those weeping eyes
If you tell me that there's something wrong
I won't laugh at you or be mad at you
Just look at far that we've come
I believe that we'll get through this
And rise like the shining sun
I'll forgive you and I'll trust you

And I'll love you for whatever you've done
I'm gonna love you for whatever you've done
I'll love you for whatever you've done
Gonna love you for whatever you become
I'll love you for whatever you've done...
