Knitting Something Nice For You

Aidan Knight

I push the needle through
Knitting something nice for you
And I guess I always should Measure twice with eyes and wood

I push the needle through
In hopes of finding something beautiful
Felt the lines go through the wool
Felt them give and push and pull

Money, money absolute
How can you run with nothing new?
All you got was knitted goods
All you got was knitted goods