

Pretender

Aiden Grimshaw

Oh boy
Why do you try so hard
Don't lose your faith
Your choices
They make you who you are
Pray

I know at night it gets so dark
Got all these scars
Got all these scars
Look at all these scars I've got
You've been playing someone else's cards
Don't go to far
Don't go to far
Look at all these scars I've got

Hey
Don't you surrender
To the pretender
Don't you ever let go
Fight
Fight the feeling
I think I'm ready
But your not ready, I know

Oh joy
It doesn't hide from you
It's in your brain
Oh boy
They think that you're confused
Pray

I know at night it gets so dark
Got all these scars
Got all these scars
Look at all these scars I've got
You've been playing someone else's cards
Don't go to far
Don't go to far
Look at all these scars I've got

Hey
Don't you surrender
To the pretender
Don't you ever let go
Fight
Fight the feeling
I think I'm ready
But your not ready, I know

I know it gets so
I know it gets so
I know sometimes it gets so
I know it gets so
I know it gets so

I know it gets so

I know it gets so
I know sometimes it gets so
I know it gets so
I know it gets so
I know sometimes it gets so hard

Said I don't think you'll remember
But I think that were the same
I've seen your procrastination
You just hold them in these days
I want to start a fire
So you come through the smoke
With stars all in your eyes
And silver in your throat

Hey
Don't you surrender
To the pretender
Don't you ever let go
Fight
Fight the feeling
I think I'm ready
But your not ready, I know

I know it gets so
I know it gets so
I know sometimes it gets so
I know it gets so
I know it gets so
I know sometimes it gets so
