Teardrop

Ailee

Am I not confident that I'll meet another guy like you?
It's not obsession but I can't get over you
Actually, I only have you
Without you, I'm so sad
When I'm laying alone in my bed without you, baby

Tears fall down
My heart starts to beat (when I think of you)
My heart cries
My world falls apart

Rain falls in my heart
Today and tomorrow will be like yesterday
Tears fall down like rain (like rain)
It's still raining
This night is never ending, so lately
These days, my tears fall like rain
It's raining right now

It's like I'm dreaming, I see you next to me
When I draw back the curtains, I don't see the dazzling sunlight today
Actually, I stayed up all night last night, tears, please put me to sleep
I still can't take a step out of my empty room

Tears fall down
My heart starts to beat (when I think of you)
My heart cries
My world falls apart

Rain falls in my heart
Today and tomorrow will be like yesterday
Tears fall down like rain (like rain)
It's still raining
This night is never ending, so lately
These days, my tears fall like rain
It's raining right now

We used to be together but now we're gone away (gone away yeah)
I'm leaving you behind because you won't come back and run away
(until that day don't let me go)
We were always together
But now tears come every day, blame it on you
I'll erase you from my tears starting from this moment

Rain falls in my heart
Today and tomorrow will be like yesterday
Tears fall down like rain (like rain)
It's still raining
This night is never ending, so lately
These days, my tears fall like rain
It's raining right now
