The cloud about to be torn apart looks just like us
Being unbalanced, we always take undecided stance towards each other

At the bottom of my heart, I feel shaky again today
I wish I could have a dream
Who's giggling?
Is somebody there?

Don't say goodbye, Jennifer
I still remember you
In your heart, I want you to think of me someday

A barking dog in the neighborhood told me
The ordinary morning came
My unbalanced body gets sucked up into space again

Carry out your promise, Jennifer
I still remember you
Oh, then
In your heart, I'm shaking, about to vanish?

Please don't forget me
The cloud about to be torn apart will become one tomorrow
Jennifer, I want to see you

Don't say goodbye, Jennifer
I still remember you
In your heart, I want you to think of me someday

Carry out your promise, Jennifer
I still remember you
Oh, then
In your heart, I'm shaking, about to vanish?
