The intensity of wind stirred my heart a little too much
So I stared at you seriously
I miss you

Those days when I was just spinning my wheels
Pretending to be a pathetic girl, I tried to be lazy, but
A ray of hope is always shining in front of me
I feel so happy

You wearing a straw hat reminds me of a swaying marigold
It was a summer day when the sky was still blue
Our love on that day evokes nostalgia and smiles

"Don't ever leave me again"
Your tearful eyes meet mine
I hug you softly and tightly with tenderness like the clouds
I'll never let you go

I know I'm not strong enough to bare my soul
But, strangely enough, no despair is in sight

Your silhouette is always reflected in my eyes
I love you

In the cold air, I walk with you side by side
Feeling your soft skin touches mine
Etching this moment in our hearts
We talk about what name is suitable for a day like this

Ah, I kissed you 'cause just saying "I love you" wasn't enough
We can still see our silhouettes in the clouds
So let's stay like this forever

Even if great distances keep us apart
I want to stay connected with you emotionally
I wish you felt the same way

You wearing a straw hat reminds me of a swaying marigold
It was a summer day when the sky was still blue
Our love on that day evokes nostalgia and smiles

"Don't ever leave me again"
Your tearful eyes meet mine
I hug you softly and tightly with tenderness like the clouds
I'll never let you go

Ah, I kissed you 'cause just saying "I love you" wasn't enough
We can still see our silhouettes in the clouds
So let's stay like this forever

I won't let you go
Forever and ever
I won't let you go
