I want to know everything about you and dominate you
A matryoshka doll pretending to be a good girl
Shall I show you my second face?

You're always just beating around the bush
I'm just fed up with one way love
Even so, I can't help saying I love you
I've ceased to be ashamed of myself

Will I be loved soon?

Running after something shines, still not being loved
I keep hiding my true self
I'm always a matryoshka doll

Letters I wrote to you without sparing time for sleep
Putting on makeup and all came to nothing
A matryoshka doll in its shell
I want you to put it on the family altar at least

Will I be loved soon?

I've always wanted something glitters
Can't I be loved even once?
I still don't know the real you even now
Am I yours?

I've gotten better at forcing a smile

A blue liquid is streaming dowm my socond face
Making a puddle, it's about to overflow
It's about to overflow
It's about to overflow

I ran after something glitters
I really wanted to be loved
Running after something shines, still not being loved
I keep hiding my true self
I'm always a matryoshka doll
Am I yours?

Matryoshka
