Sighing is a waste of oxygen
We might as well have fun conversations
Stop acting like that already
Don't expect me to say "It ruins your pretty face"

You sleep anytime you want to
Then why you try to resist crying?
You said you had your pride, though
Let me tell you one thing

You know what?
Pride doesn't suit you
Try to show your humanity
You don't want to show your crying face?
Liars are losers
I know you cry like a baby before your crush
Are you pretending to be innocent?

Anyway, you'd best stay at home and relax today
Everything will seem ridiculous and you'll get hungry soon
Let's go somewhere whether it rains or shines tomorrow
Pinky promise
If you break your word, I'll come to hit you

I don't mean that you should force a smile, but
To tell the truth, being with you is not fun
If you have something to say, bothers you
Tell me, I'm all ears

Slanders, backbitings, anything is okay
Don't hesitate, speak out
I'll turn everything into laughter for you
Stop being gloomy and crouch down at every turn
It's an eyesore for me
If you want to be left alone
I won't have anything to do with you, seriously
Don't bluff me

Anyway, you'd best stay at home and watch a movie today
Everything will seem silly and you'll fall asleep soon
Lift yourself up and come out of your room tomorrow
Pinky promise
I'll go to see you before you go back on your word

Rather than going to look for something good
Why don't you just stay with me?
You'll kinda cease to care about anything
"Just relax and go with the flow"
You often hear it, don't you?

"Cheer up!"

Anyway, you'd best stay at home and relax today
Everything will seem ridiculous and you'll get hungry soon
Let's go somewhere whether it rains or shines tomorrow
Pinky promise
If you break your word, I'll come to hit you
